

JCB CONSUMER CREDIT CARD AGREEMENT AND DISCLOSURE UNDER THE FEDERAL TRUTH IN LENDING ACT

Dear Cardmember:

Before using the enclosed card, read this Agreement carefully. This Agreement governs the Marukai Hawaii JCB Credit Card Account ("Account") and the Marukai Hawaii JCB Card ("Card") that JCB International Credit Card Co., Ltd. ("we", "us," or "our") has established by you. By signing, accepting or using the Card, you agree to all of the terms written below. We thank you for choosing JCB.

1. USE OF ACCOUNT.

You can use your Card to obtain cash, goods, or services. You agree that you will use your Card primarily for personal, family or household purposes.

Purchases. You can use your Card to pay for goods and services at any and all merchant locations and service providers that honor the Card. Any such use of your Card will be treated as a "purchase."

Cash Advance. You can use your Card to obtain cash from branch offices of participating financial institutions or automated teller machines ("ATM") linked to a participating ATM network. Any such use of your Card will be treated as a "cash advance."

Convenience Checks. We may, from time to time, issue convenience checks to you. Convenience Checks allow you to write a check to a third party and the check is drawn against the Account. Convenience Checks are treated the same as cash advances and are referred to in this Agreement as "check advances."

2. CREDIT LIMIT / CASH LIMIT.

You agree not to make purchases that result in your Account balance exceeding the credit limit we set for your Account. You agree not to make cash or check advances that result in your Account balance exceeding the cash limit we set for your Account. The initial credit limit is set forth on the face of your Card carrier. The credit limit and the cash limit can be found on your monthly statement. We reserve the right to reduce your credit limit or cash limit.

3. PROMISE TO PAY.

You promise to pay us for all purchases, cash advances, interest charges, fees and other charges associated with your Account. You also agree to be responsible for charges (i) incurred by persons who have actual, implied or apparent authority to use your Card(s) and/or Account or (ii) from which any of you receives benefit, whether tangible or intangible.

4. PAYMENTS.

Each month you will be billed for charges to your Account. You may elect to pay only a portion of the amounts owing on your Account each month, but you agree to pay at least the Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date shown on your billing statement. The Minimum Payment Due will be 3% of the New Balance shown on your billing statement or $15 (whichever is greater), plus any part of the previous month's Minimum Payment Due that is past due, and any amount by which your New Balance exceeds your assigned credit limit. A New Balance of $15 or less must be paid in full.

Payments 1) received by 5 p.m. local time at the address shown on the remittance coupon on the front of your billing statement; 2) paid with check or draft drawn in US dollars on a U.S. financial institution or a U.S. dollar money order; and 3) sent in the return envelope with only the remittance coupon from your billing statement, will be posted on the same business day of the receipt. Payments received after 5 p.m. local time at the remittance address on any day including the Payment Due Date, but that otherwise meet the above requirements; will be credited as of the next business day. Any other payments, credit may be delayed up to five days. Payments received with post-dated checks will be deposited upon receipt.

The Payment Due Dates for your Account will always fall on the same date each month and you have 27 days from your Statement Closing Date until the next Payment Due Date. If your due date falls on a weekend or holiday, your payments received on the next business day will be credited to your Account as received on the due date without late penalties.

We can accept late payments and partial payments marked "Payment in Full" (or similar language) without losing our rights including the right to obtain full payment of the amount owed on your Account.

Payment by third party check or draft that has been endorsed by you to us is not acceptable. Payment by check or draft made directly to us but drawn by anyone other than you may be rejected at our option.

How we apply your payments: The minimum payment is applied at our discretion. Any payments that exceed the Minimum Payment Due, are applied to the balance with the highest interest rate first.

5. FOREIGN TRANSACTIONS.

If you use the Card for a transaction in a currency other than U.S. dollars, we and our affiliate company will convert such transaction amount into U.S. dollars pursuant to the then-applicable conversion procedures and operating regulations. Currently, we and our affiliate company use wholesale exchange rates, with the exception of certain currencies where there are government-mandated exchange rates. In each case, such applicable rate will be increased by 1.1% by our affiliate company as an exchange fee and we will bill you for the U.S. dollar amount so calculated. If a credit is issued for a transaction, the credit amount will be calculated in the same manner. The currency conversion rate used on the conversion date may differ from the rate in effect on the date you transact on the Card or the date on which such transaction is posted. You agree to accept such converted amount in U.S. dollars.

6. VARIABLE RATE INFORMATION.

If you carry a balance or transact Cash or Check Advances on your Account, we will charge interest at your VARIABLE ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE (APR).

The VARIABLE ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE may change quarterly on the first day of the billing cycle beginning in April, July, October, and January, based on the Prime Rate on the second Tuesday on March, June, September, and December. Any increase will have the effect of higher monthly payments and higher interest charges. If The Wall Street Journal stops publishing the Prime Rate, we reserve the right to choose a comparable index.

The VARIABLE ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE is equal to 9.9% above the Prime Rate. This applies to purchases, cash and check advances shown on your statement. This VARIABLE ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE shall not exceed 18.0%. The INTEREST CHARGE is posted to your Account at the end of the billing cycle in a single amount as part of the New Balance. As of December 8, 2009, the applicable Prime Rate is 3.25%.

7. INTEREST CHARGE CALCULATION.

Interest charge on purchases and interest charge on cash or check advances are calculated separately. We use a method called "average daily balance (including new purchases)" as follows:

PURCHASE BALANCE SUBJECT TO PERIODIC INTEREST CHARGE: If you pay your New Balance at the beginning of a billing cycle in full by the Payment Due Date, no Periodic Interest Charges will be imposed on purchase transactions for the billing cycle. For balances not paid in full, we will determine the daily purchase balance by (a) starting with the day's beginning purchase balance for the Account, (b) adding any purchases or other charges posted that day, (c) subtracting any payments or credits posted that day, and (d) subtracting any outstanding cash and check advances, Interest Charges or Account fees, (e) dividing the sum of (a) to (d) by the number of days in the billing cycle.

CASH AND CHECK ADVANCE BALANCE SUBJECT TO PERIODIC INTEREST CHARGES: We will determine the cash and check advance balance subject to periodic Interest Charges by (a) starting with the day's beginning cash balance for the Account, (b) adding any cash and check advances, (c) subtracting any payments or credits posted that day, and (d) subtracting any outstanding purchases, Interest Charges or Account fees, (e) dividing the sum of (a) to (d) by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Transaction Interest Charge. Each time you obtain cash or check advance, you agree to pay an INTEREST CHARGE of $2.00 or 2% of the amount of the advance, whichever is greater. The assessment of a cash or check advance Interest Charge may increase the VARIABLE ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE on your periodic statement above the corresponding VARIABLE ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE.

Grace Period For Purchases. We will not assess a Periodic Interest Charge on purchases in a billing cycle if we receive the New Balance shown on your previous billing statement by the Payment Due Date (which is twenty-seven (27) days after the closing date of the billing cycle). If we do not receive the entire New Balance by the Payment Due Date, Periodic Interest Charges will accrue on all purchases, from the beginning of the billing cycle or the date they were posted to your Account, whichever is later.

No Grace Period For Cash and Check Advances. There is no grace period for cash and check advances. Periodic Interest Charges accrue on advances from the date they are posted to the Account.

8. OTHER FEES AND CHARGES.

Annual Fee. We will waive all annual Credit Card fees for your Account until you are notified otherwise.

Late Charge Fee. You will have at least twenty-seven (27) days between the Billing Cycle Closing Date and the Payment Due Date shown on your billing statement. If we do not receive the Minimum Payment Due within two days after the Payment Due Date, you agree to pay a late charge of $25.00 is imposed for the billing period.

No Over-limit Fee. No overlimit fee is assessed on your Account. However, please note that we may decline any transaction that may cause you to exceed your credit limit.

Dishonored Check Charge. You agree to pay a $25.00 charge for each dishonored check or money order presented to us for payment for the billing period. We reserve the right to impose the interest charge for the billing period in accordance with the Agreement for the payment amount that was not processed.

Service Charges. If you request a duplicate statement or copy of any sales draft or other document concerning any charge reflected on a billing statement, we will supply copies for $5.00 each, payable in advance. If you request information that requires research, a fee of $15.00 per hour will be charged to your Account. However, if any request for copies or research is made to dispute a charge on the Account, and it turns out the charge was in error, we will credit the Account for any service charges imposed.

Collection Costs. You agree to pay the costs of collecting the Account or retrieving the Card, including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, whether or not a lawsuit is filed.

Fees Related to Method of Payment. We will not impose a separate fee to allow you to repay an extension of credit or Interest Charge, whether such repayment is made by mail, electronic transfer, telephone authorization, or other means, unless such payment involves an expedited service by us to avoid late charges.

The above fees and charges will be assessed to the extent permitted by applicable law.

9. EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT NOTICE.

The federal Equal Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.

10. CREDIT BALANCE.

If a credit balance (represented by an amount with a minus "-" sign) is shown on your statement, it represents money owed to you. If you do not make sufficient charges against the credit balance or request a refund, we will issue a check to you for the credit balance if the amount is $1.00 or more within 30 days after expiration of the six month period following the date of the first statement indicating the credit balance. We will not be responsible if any merchant or financial institution refuses to honor your Card. If you have a dispute concerning any merchandise or service purchased using your Account, you agree to attempt to resolve the dispute directly with the merchant. We will not be responsible for errors in cash advance transactions that are due to malfunctions in ATMs.

15. AUTHORIZATIONS.

We reserve the right to deny authorization of any purchase or cash or check advance transaction without prior notification. You agree that neither we nor any merchant or authorization service we use, shall be liable for any authorization denial.

16. TERMINATION OF ACCOUNT.

Any use of Card(s) or Convenience Check(s) after your Account has been terminated may be considered fraudulent. Terminating the Account does not require you to immediately pay off the remaining balance.

If you or we terminate your Account, you will still be responsible for charges to your Account, even if they are made or processed after your Account is closed. You will be responsible to pay the outstanding balance on your Account according to the terms of this Agreement.

17. CARD SURRENDER.

You agree to surrender such Card to us or to our agents upon demand, and to promptly cease use of and return all Cards and Convenience Checks upon termination of your Account.

If you requested that an additional person be given a Card to use your Account (whether the Account is an individual Account or a joint Account), and we issued you an additional Card for that person, then that person is an Authorized User. If your Account is an individual Account, you are liable for the full amount of all purchases, cash and check advances, Interest Charges, miscellaneous charges and fees, and any other monetary obligations associated with the Account, including charges in excess of your credit limit and including any charges by an Authorized User. 21. CHANGE IN TERMS.

We can change the terms of this Agreement, including terms relating to interest rates and fees that may be imposed and including adding new contract terms that differ in kind from the terms and conditions included in this Agreement, at any time.

You will be notified of significant changes in terms of the Account, including interest rates and fees, not later than 45 days prior to the effective date. When certain terms change, you have the right to cancel the Account. Closing or canceling the Account does not require you to immediately pay off the remaining balance.
